Information on allocation

At 2.00pm on Friday 29 June 2012 the Minister for Major Projects final statements on the allocation process for fruit and vegetable stores and stands and flower stands will be posted on the MMA website. The statements will be available to download at www.melbournemarkets.com.au/market-relocation.

Advisory Committee members are being briefed on the allocation statements on Tuesday 3 July 2012. Market members are encouraged to read these statements and discuss any queries with their relevant Advisory Committee Members. A list of the current Advisory Committee Members is available over the page.

Also available to download from 2.00pm on Friday 29 June 2012 is a copy of the Survey Letter on lost and gained space. The survey letter will shortly be sent to all leaseholders who are encouraged to provide any feedback no later than 27 July 2012.

Rent Options Discussion Paper

The Advisory Committees met during the week beginning 25 June 2012 to be briefed on the rent options discussion paper. Minutes from these meetings will be available from the MMA website at <http://www.melbournemarkets.com.au/market-relocation/epping-market-committee/> and will be uploaded in the week commencing 2 July 2012. This discussion paper is currently available to download on www.melbournemarkets.com.au/market-relocation.

At the request of the Growers Advisory Committee, the date for submitting comments on the rent options paper has been extended to 30 July 2012.
